

OFFICE OF RESEARCH AND REPORTS

I. MISSION

The Assistant Director for Research and Reports is charged with conducting intelligence research and producing intelligence reports (excluding scientific intelligence) under approved agency intelligence production plans.

II. FUNCTIONS

The Assistant Director for Research and Reports shall:

- A. Formulate and recommend the intelligence research program for his Office.
- B. Conduct intelligence research and produce intelligence reports in specified fields of common concern, and in other fields as directed.
- C. Provide for centralized allocations and coordination of the National Intelligence Surveys program.

- D. Provide centrally for the production and coordination of foreign geographic and map intelligence, and for the procurement and preparation of intelligence maps.
- E. Formulate and establish the necessary requirements for intelligence information for his Office for transmittal through appropriate channels for collection action.
- F. Provide CIA collection offices and other governmental collection agencies with evaluations on their reports which fall within fields of intelligence research and reporting responsibilities of his Office.
- G. Perform such other functions related to intelligence research on reporting as may be directed.